

VITASTA BLACKSPINE
PUBLISHING GROUP

CATALOGUE

2026-2027

Publisher's Note

At Vitasta, our journey has always been guided by a simple but enduring belief—that books have the power to inform, inspire, and quietly transform lives. Over the years, our trade publishing programme has grown into a vibrant and diverse list, bringing together voices that provoke thought, challenge conventions, and deepen our understanding of the world around us.

Our tagline, “books that dare the system,” reflects this spirit. We are drawn to ideas that question the status quo, amplify unheard perspectives, and encourage readers to think independently and critically. Whether through bold non-fiction or compelling narratives, our endeavour is to publish works that are not just read, but remembered.

This catalogue is thoughtfully divided into two broad sections. The first brings together our trade list—titles that engage scholars, researchers, and the wider adult readership alike, offering depth, insight, and meaningful discourse. The second is our Vats imprint, dedicated to children and young adults, as well as to educators and parents. Here, the focus is on creating books that spark curiosity, nurture imagination, and build strong foundations for lifelong learning.

As Vitasta evolves, so does our vision. With the coming together of Vitasta and Blackspine, we are also extending our presence in the K–12 education space, complementing our trade strengths while staying true to our core ethos of quality publishing.

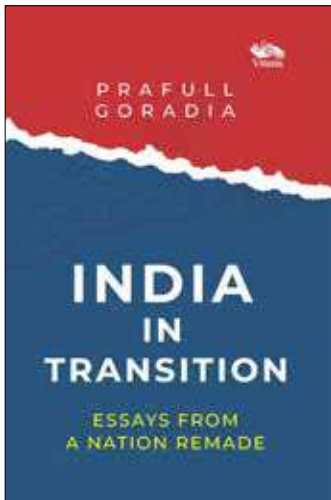

This catalogue is a reflection of who we are today—rooted in purpose, open to new directions, and deeply committed to our readers. We are grateful to our authors, partners, and readers who continue to place their trust in us, and we look forward to many more stories and ideas finding their way into your hands.

TIMELESS CLASSICS

From the cosmic terror of MS. Found in a Bottle and the bizarre aerial voyage of Hans Pfaall, to the chilling scientific limbo of M. Valdemar and the claustrophobic dread of The Premature Burial, Edgar Allan Poe probes the fragile boundary between life and death. In Ligeia, Morella, and Berenice, love becomes a fixation and identity refuses to die, while Eleonora offers a rare, dreamlike meditation on memory and loss.

Interwoven with these tales are some of Poe's most haunting poems. Annabel Lee and For Annie sing of love that survives death, suspended between grief and a strange sense of serenity. A Dream and Fairy-Land drift through fragile, otherworldly beauty, while The Haunted Palace transforms the mind itself into a crumbling Gothic ruin.

Placing exodus of Kashmiri Pandits from the Valley in context, the author offers a panoramic view of the history of the region, emphasising the injustice that continues to haunt the psyche of those who went into exile.

Having left all worldly possessions behind, they struggled for years to find their feet and later spread all over the world to build new lives for themselves. NH44: Take Me Home is their story, the title expressing the yearning and sentiment they all feel for their lost, but not forgotten, home.

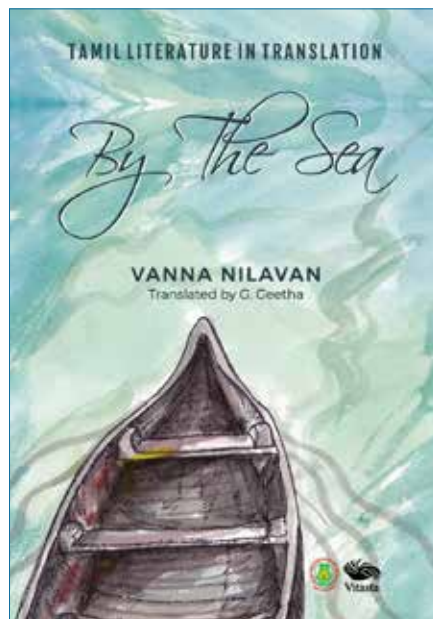

Anushka Dhar, a sixteen year-old, is a blossoming Mumbai-based writer who strives to engage in mindful, progressive conversations. From being an A-grade student at school to a fierce and competitive sportsman on the court, this youngun likes to don many avatars.
